Summary of dispute settlement program:

The neutral arbitration program has been designed to give neither party any special advantage. If a dispute arises between the carrier and the shipper arbitration may be mutually beneficial alternative to help resolve the dispute. Section 49 U.S.C. Section 375,211 provides that a mover must have a program in place to provide shippers with an arbitration alternative. Arbitration is an alternative to courtroom litigation. It provides each party to the dispute to present their cases and allows a neutral third party arbitrator to make a decision as to the merits of each side's case. Arbitration subject to this agreement shall be conducted via written submission and, subject to the arbitrator's discretion, through telephonic appearance. After the initial filing fees have been paid and the arbitrator selected, the initiating party or "claimant" must submit a written brief summarizing their legal position or factual claims. All supporting documentation must be included with the initial arbitration brief. Copies of all documents must be submitted to all parties involved in the arbitration. Upon receipt of the claimants arbitration brief and supporting documents, the responding party or "respondent" will have 30 days to file their responsive arbitration brief and the supporting documentation. Further deadlines and timetables are subject to the arbitrator's discretion. Legal effects: if the arbitration alternative is chosen, then any decision made by the arbitrator may be binding. Additionally, an arbitration decision may not be appealed in a court of law. All parties agree that the Arbitrators decision will be based exclusively on the governing United States Federal Law without regard to conflicting State laws or regulations. Applicable costs: each party is responsible for their own costs associated with the arbitration. A benefit to the arbitration alternative may be that it is less expensive than traditional litigation. Each party is responsible for 50% of the costs for securing the arbitrator and 100% of their own expenses, including but not limited to attorney fees. Call carrier for forms and more info. Arbitration will be conducted by Transportation ADR Council, Inc.
