

Days later we realized that my washer and dryer were completely dented and banged up. The washer is leaking too. I called the moving company to complain the following day, and no answer. I got through them 3 days later. I paid $2,800.00 to allegiance and then $1,200.00 to the driver. Ridiculous for the service that I received.

It's so hard to get a hold of someone at this company that I lost hope. I am active duty military and I had no time off, I've been working long hours and just the thought about reliving the nightmare move gives me anxiety.

I am requesting a full refund of $4,000

And a new washer and dryer
