Note: Your belongings are likely to spend up to 14 business days in transit from the scheduled departure date. For moves from West Coast to East Coast or East Coast to West Coast, it may take up to 21 business days. We have every 1-2 weeks departure to/from West Coast and monthly departures to/from East Coast, and twice a month departures to/from Montreal/Ottawa area. The departure date may vary from the pick-up date.

We'll make sure to give you at least 1-3 days advanced notice of the exact delivery date and time.

If your building has restrictions on move-in days, or you have specific drop-off date requirements inform us in advance.

Important: it is the customers' responsibility to check-mark each item on your delivery form as you receive it into your home before movers finish unloading. Any missing item(s) or damaged item(s) must be reported at the time of your delivery to your driver. The Inventory Form has a column entitled Delivery Exceptions on the right side of the form. Record any damages noted or state "missing" beside the item. This process is necessary to validate your claim and have it witnessed and confirmed by your delivery driver. Failing to complete this process will result in claim denial.
